According to the Central Baptist there are eight hundred and eighty-nine Christian missionaries in China. It would be interesting to know how many missionaries are at work among the Chinese in this country.

The Chicago Tribune protests vigorously against the raise of the rate for ten words from New York to Chicago from fifteen to fifty cents since the transfer of the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph to the Western Union.

The Pike's Peak Herald reprinted yesterday a number of complimentary notices which it has received. The paper is generally recognized as the handsomest, typographically, in the state, and eminently deserves the pleasant notices it has received.

We learn from the News that several republicans have voted for Mr. Drake, the candidate of the American party for sheriff of Arapahoe county. We also learn, from the Republican, that many democrats will support him. The American ticket seems to be a kind of a safety valve for some.

We publish this week an account of the public county convention yesterday, at the head of our column. The convention was a harmonious one, and all parts of the county were represented. Only two delegates were absent. The nominees are too well known to require comment.

Mr. Dana, of the Sun, thinks that Mr. Cleveland has not been dropped from the encyclopedias because he stood in the way of Mr. Blaine's election, but that Mr. Cleveland's name has been dropped out of the encyclopedias because Mr. Dana is afraid of having to change his name. Maybe that's the reason why Dana was born. So far as Mr. Cleveland is concerned, Mr. Dana was born to be dropped.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the card of Dr. Fowler, dentist, in another column. Dr. Fowler is a gentleman who has been in practice in this city for a number of years, and has a large and lucrative practice. He is a graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College, and is a thorough master of his profession. He is also a gentleman of the highest character, and is deserving of the confidence and patronage of the public.

LITERARY NOTES.

The library of the Ivy Leaf Club has received as a gift from the author a work on Christmas by G. Warren Edwards.
